

I think the no call list should stay in affect,most famlies have two working parents.So evening are family time if comanies are allowed to make unwanted call then that takes from your quialty time at night.